This publication is one of a series containing statistics on the waterborne commerce of the United States during the calendar year 1987. Four of these publications present detailed data on the movements of commodities and vessels at the ports and harbors and on the waterways and canals of the United States, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands, and the fifth contains summary data of the country as a whole. The numbers of the publications and the areas covered are:

Part 2.	Gulf Coast, Mississippi River System, and Antilles
Part 3.	Great Lakes
Part 4.	Pacific Coast, Alaska, and Hawaii
Part 5.	Waterborne Commerce of the United States (National Summaries)

Both the foreign and domestic commerce moved on the United States waters are included. Data on the foreign commerce were supplied to the Corps of Engineers by the Bureau of the Census; data for the compilation of the domestic statistics were collected by the several offices of the Corps of Engineers, Department of the Army, in compliance with various acts of Congress. The principal provision governing the collection of these data is included in the Rivers and Harbors Act of September 22, 1922; as amended by Section 919 of the 1986 Water Resources Development Act.

Section 11. That owners, agents, masters, and clerks of vessels and other craft plying upon the navigable waters of the United States, and all individuals and corporations engaged in transporting their own goods upon the navigable waters of the United States, shall furnish such statements relative to vessels, passengers, freight and tonnage as may be required by the Secretary of War: Provided, that this provision shall not apply to those rafting logs, except upon a direct request upon the owner to furnish specific information.

That every person or persons offending against the provisions of this section shall, for each and every offense, be liable to a fine of $5,000 or imprisonment not exceeding two months, to be enforced in any district court in the United States within whose territorial jurisdiction such offense may have been committed.

While the information as now collected and compiled is designed to meet the administrative requirements of the Department of the Army in connection with the duties assigned by Congress, it also provides useful data for other governmental departments, commercial and shipping concerns, and others interested in transportation.

Waterborne traffic movements were reported to the Corps of Engineers by all vessel operators of record on prescribed forms approved by the Office of Management and Budget for those movements of their vessels which were classified as domestic traffic; namely, between United States ports, continental and noncontiguous, and on the island rivers, canals, and connecting channels of the United States, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands. The reports were generally submitted on the basis of a vessel movement completed in one direction and, for movements with cargo, the origin and destination of the water transportation of each individual commodity. In compiling the data, the entire movement was included in the year in which the movement was completed even though the shipment may have originated in the preceding year, except that, beginning with calendar year 1961 statistics, a cutoff date of 28 February was established for the processing of reports from vessel operators covering the prior year's completed movements. Hence, reports of movements completed in 1987 but not reported to the Corps of Engineers until after 28 February 1988 will be included in the next year's, 1988, statistics rather than in this publication, while reports of movements completed in 1986 but reported to the Corps after 28 February 1987 are included in this publication.

Sponsored by the Office of Statistical Policy, Office of Management and Budget, a uniform system of classification for freight was developed with cooperation of all Federal agencies engaged in collecting and compiling data on shipping. This classification, the Commodity Classification for Domestic Waterborne Commerce, is used for data on the foreign and domestic commerce presented in these publications, although some minor modifications exist in the foreign data which were necessitated by Bureau of the Census policies and procedures.

The domestic traffic includes all commercial movements between points in the United States, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands. Traffic with the Panama Canal Zone is treated as foreign commerce. Cargo moved for the military agencies in commercial vessels is reported as ordinary commercial cargo; military cargo moved in Department of Defense vessels is omitted from these statistics.

All movements between the United States and foreign countries and between Puerto Rico and Virgin Islands, U.S.A., and foreign countries are classified as foreign traffic. Trade between United States territories and possessions, i.e. Guam, Wake, American Samoa, etc., and foreign countries is excluded.

These data are furnished to the Corps of Engineers by the Bureau of the Census under a working arrangement sponsored by the Office of Statistical Policy, Office of Management and Budget. The data are confined to movements by water, and are reconcilable with published reports of the Bureau of the Census. Shipments of domestic merchandise and re-exports of foreign merchandise are termed exports. The imports include inbound merchandise for direct consumption and entries into custom bonded storage and manufacturing warehouses. Intransit merchandise, defined by the Bureau of the Census as merchandise coming into the United States from a foreign country and shipped to a foreign country without having been entered as an import, is treated as an import when unloaded from a vessel and as an export when loaded on a vessel. Export shipments for use of the United States Armed Forces abroad are excluded from the statistics as are import shipments on Department of Defense owned and operated vessels. Foreign trade data of territories and possessions other than Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands, which are under the jurisdiction of the Department of the Interior, were not furnished to the Corps of Engineers by the Bureau of the Census and are excluded from the statistics of both agencies.

Export shipments under the various foreign aid programs on Department of Defense operated vessels, either American Flag commercial vessels under time, voyage, or space charter or vessels owned and operated by the Department of Defense, and various items (listed by the Census) which affect national security are not published in terms of the individual commodities shipped. Instead, a lump-sum tonnage figure is compiled and appears in these tables as commodity code 9999, "Department of Defense Controlled Cargo and Special Category Items."

The 1987 statistics on waterborne exports of domestic and foreign merchandise and non-Department of Defense shipments of Special Category commodities reflect fully compiled data for shipments to Canada individually valued at $2,000 and over combined with estimated data for shipments valued $251-$1,999, based on a 10-percent sample of such shipments. For countries other than Canada, the export statistics reflect fully compiled data for shipments valued $1,000 and over combined with estimated data for shipments valued $251-$999, based on a 50-percent sample of such shipments. Data on export shipments valued under $251 are excluded from this report.

Import statistics for 1987 exclude data on shipments valued $250 and under reported on both formal and informal entries. Informal entries generally contain items valued not more than $250.

Foreign trade data furnished by Census are based on reports processed for Census' monthly data January through December and represent statistical year rather than calendar year data.

Combination of the net domestic traffic (originating commodity movements) with the foreign traffic (imports and exports) provides the net total tons of the waterborne commerce of the United States. In summarizing the domestic commerce to obtain the net lading of rail cars moved on car-ferries; cargo on general ferries; Government materials moved by water in connection with waterway improvements and maintenance; and coal and petroleum products loaded from shore facilities directly into bunkers of vessels for fuel were excluded. (There are certain, so-called car-ferry operations which are not considered in the ferry category; rail-car carriers on the Great Lakes which operate under Part III of the Interstate Commerce Act; and rail-car carriers between points in the contiguous 48 States or in Canada on the one hand and Alaska on the other.)

For Parts 1 through 4, and Section 1 of Part 5, ton-mileage data are computed by the Corps of Engineers to reflect movements on rivers, inland waterways, and waters of the Great Lakes System only. Cargoes of deep-sea vessels - both in the foreign and domestic trades - are included only for that portion of the voyage that occurred on inland rivers, canals, or connecting channels. Thus, for a movement of commodities from Boston, Massachusetts, to New Orleans, Louisiana, ton-miles are computed for the haul on the Cape Cod Canal - if this canal was transited during the trip - and for the haul on the Mississippi River, the carriage on the ocean and Gulf of Mexico is not taken into account. In Section 3 of Part 5, ton-mileage data are based on the entire haul for the domestic traffic.

TERMS FOR KIND OF TRAFFIC

Imports and exports. These terms apply to traffic between the United States and Foreign ports, including the Canal Zone. Traffic of U.S. Great Lakes ports with Canada is supplemented by the term "Canadian" to differentiate it from overseas traffic.

Coastwise receipts and shipments. These terms apply to domestic traffic receiving a carriage over the ocean, or the Gulf of Mexico, e.g. New Orleans to Baltimore, New York to Puerto Rico, San Francisco to Hawaii, Puerto Rico to Hawaii. Traffic between Great Lakes ports and seacoast ports, when having a carriage over the ocean, is also termed "coastwise." The Chesapeake Bay and Puget Sound are considered internal bodies of water rather than arms of the ocean and therefore, traffic confined to these areas is "internal" rather than "coastwise."

Lakewise receipts and shipments. These terms apply to traffic between United States ports on the Great Lakes System. The Great Lakes System is treated as a separate system rather than as a part of the inland system.

Internal receipts and shipments. These terms apply to traffic between ports or landings wherein the entire movement takes place on inland waterways. Also termed internal are movements involving carriage on both inland waterways and waters of the Great Lakes; inland movements that cross short stretches of open waters which link inland systems; marine products, sand and gravel taken directly from beds of the oceans, the Gulf of Mexico and important arms thereof; and movements between offshore installations and inland waterways.

Local. Movements of freight within the confines of a port whether the port has only one or several arms or channels, except car-ferry and general ferry, are termed "local." The term is also applied to marine products, sand, and gravel taken directly from the Great Lakes.

Intraterritory receipts and shipments. These terms apply to traffic between ports in Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands, U.S.A. which are considered as a single unit.

SECTION 2 of this publication presents on an area-to-area basis the tonnages of principal commodities transported by vessels in the domestic inland waterway trade of the United States. For each commodity, the total for the United States (total of all shipping areas), the total shipped from each shipping area, and the total from each shipping area to each receiving area (destination) are shown in the tables. The origin and destination areas are defined in terms of waterways, incorporating minor tributaries, and in some instances, major ports, which are not susceptible to inclusion in a single waterway. The area designations are designed to avoid disclosure of individual company operations.

These data cover those movements confined to the inland waterways and between the inland waterways and United States ports on the Great Lakes, they combine the totals of internal and local types of traffic as defined above. Collectively, the selected commodities included account for 75.7 percent of the total domestic inland traffic.

SECTION 3 presents the performance of the water carrier industry in terms of ton-miles on a type of service basis and provides detailed data on types of traffic and commodities transported in the domestic trades, also in terms of ton-miles during 1987. Water carriage ton-miles were first compiled and published for 1962. However, somewhat comparable data were released for 1961. The 1961 compilations were made on a carrier (ICC regulated and exempt) basis rather than by type of service; regulated carriers may engage in more than one type of service.

Preparation and publication of these data were sponsored by the Office of Statistical Policy, Office of Management and Budget, in response to numerous requests received from congressional, federal and private agencies.

Ton-miles were computed by the Corps of Engineers based on origin/destination of commodity tonnages reported by vessel operators on Office of Management and Budget approved ENG Form 3925 and related forms; these forms were submitted to the Corps for the compilation of port and waterway statistics published in Parts 1 to 5 of "Waterborne Commerce of the United States." Distance factors used are in statute miles and, for the Coastwise trade, represent mileage on the shortest route that safe navigation permits between ports of origin and destination. The factors for this trade were developed from United States Coast and Geodetic Surveys, "Distance Between United States Ports," and United States Navy Hydrographic Offices, "Table of Distances Between Ports." For rivers and inland waterways, distance factors were developed from waterway survey maps and records of the Corps of Engineers and are based on the actual routes reported by vessel operators on the reporting forms.

Type of service (carriage) is based on information supplied by vessel operators on the reporting forms, which were modified for the 1962 statistics to obtain this information. Categories of service are: (1) Regulated, which is common and contract carriage subject to economic regulation by the Interstate Commerce Commission. (2) Exempt, for hire, carriage which is exempt from regulation by the Commission because of specific provisions in Part III, Interstate Commerce Act. (3) Private, which represents the movement of the property of the water carrier in the vessels it operates; this category is also exempt from regulation by the Commission.

The commodities are listed in terms of the Commodity Classification for Domestic Waterborne Commerce used in all 5 parts of the Corps of Engineers' annual publication, "Waterborne Commerce of the United States." Types of traffic are also the same as those reported and defined above. Both traffic and commodity ton-miles in this section bear a direct relationship to the corresponding tonnages reported in Table 2 of Section 1, consequently, the ton-mile data herein are based on the same February 28 cutoff date used in the compilation of the tonnage data.

Total ton-miles for all types of traffic shown in Table 1 of this section are considerably higher than the total shown in Table 6 of Section 1. The difference is entirely in Coastwise traffic, since the total distance, both inland and ocean, was used in developing data presented in this section, whereas only the inland portion is included in tables comprising Section 1. Both of these tables include ton-miles for the foreign trade of the U.S. in U.S. flag as well as foreign flag vessels; however, the computation is limited to the distance transported on the Great Lakes between the head of the Lakes at Duluth/Superior and the international boundary at St. Regis, Quebec, Canada, and on the inland waterways of the U.S. and the entrance channels to U.S. coastal ports; this foreign traffic is not subject to economic regulation by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

All totals of both columns and rows, all averages, and all percentages are based on figures before rounding to thousands. Hence, slight differences appear between the totals shown in the sum of the rounded figures in columns and rows, in the percentages, and in the average hauls when compared with the quotients derived by dividing the ton-miles by the rounded or unrounded tons shown in either this section or in Section 1.
